Abstract

The article reveals the essence and importance of measures to prevent judicial errors, different kinds of measures are analyzed. It is determined that under the procedural measures to prevent an error of justice in civil proceedings, one should understand the implementation of certain provisions of the Civil Procedure Act which prevent the occurrence of judicial errors. It is noted that the legal and quick overcome of gaps through the application of law by analogy or based on general principles of law prevents judicial errors. Such forms of increase of qualification of judges have been highlighted: self-learning; constant seminars and scientific-practical conferences of judges; training; learning and increasing of qualification in the National School of Judges of Ukraine. It is noted that the creation of effective means of preventing system corruption in the judiciary, the development of comprehensive measures for counteraction to this phenomenon, identifying and overcoming of social conditions and its consequences is one of the main priorities of the country. It is claimed that in order to prevent an error of justice it is necessary to improve civil procedural law by specification and the addition of amendments to certain provisions of the Civil Procedural Code of Ukraine.

Keywords: prevention, judicial error, analogy, increase of qualification, improvement of legislation.
